REMOTE WORSHIP – CONNECTING

Today we are continuing to worship remotely via the church’s Facebook page. Direct your web browser to www.facebook.com/stjohnluthfw/ at 10:00 a.m. Then look for a notice indicating that we are Livestreaming. Click on that notice and you should be able to watch—and worship—together. You can even click ‘likes’ and add comments that others will see. God bless and keep us all in this “new normal” in which we find ourselves!

DID YOU KNOW YOU COULD CONNECT TO ZOOM WITH JUST YOUR PHONE?

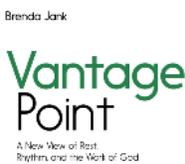

That’s right, there is a dial in option for folk who have a phone but no mobile device. This can be a mobile phone or even a good old fashioned landline. For our Fellowship Time after worship, simply dial 1-312-626-6799, then, when prompted to enter the meeting #, enter 878 097 321. The instead of entering a participant ID, just hit the # key. A voice should tell you you are now in the meeting, which is to say, you will be in St. John’s Fellowship Time—again, minus the donuts. Hope you can make it!

BLESSING OF THE BACKPACKS TODAY!

Hey kids! today is “Bring Your Backpacks to Church” Sunday at St. John! Parents, we are pleased to announce a blessing of the backpacks (and the children who use them, of course!) today during the Kids’ Talk time during worship. Due to the pandemic, we will ALSO be inviting children worshipping remotely to hold up their backpacks at home to be blessed. In addition, we will be praying for any in the congregation who work in the schools as well as Concordia Lutheran High School, SAFE and Washington Elementary staff and students. So see you—and your backpacks!—in worship! No Sunday School classes yet - but stay tuned for when we can be back together!

CONTINUE YOUR JOURNEY DEEPER INTO REST WITH A TRIAD BOOK STUDY

Brenda Jank, the face on the videos we have been showing on Sunday mornings and presenter at our retreat later this month, has written a book entitled, Vantage Point: A New View of Rest, Rhythm, and the Work of God. Starting as early as August 16, you could participate in a six week triad with two others to read and reflect on this book and the four rhythms it describes: sleep, Sabbath keeping, stillness and solitude. More details can be found in the August newsletter or by emailing pastorpaul@stjohnluth.com. May God bless our congregation’s journey deeper into these four key elements of rest!

We invite you to share your prayer concerns by calling the church office, 426.5751, or by filling out a green Prayer Request Card (found in the pew-card holder) and giving it to an usher, placing it in the offering plate or by placing it on the desk in the church office. Please indicate what you would like listed for prayers if you would like it to be listed. If you or a family member goes into the hospital, please call the church office so we are made aware of it as the privacy laws for hospitals do not always allow them to notify us thanks.

YOU’RE INVITED

Today, from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m., Smith Academy for Excellence (SAFE) has invited the community to join them for a time of prayer for students, staff and the upcoming school year. SERMON SERIES – “A REST THAT WORKS”

We are now in the midst of a five week sermon series on Sunday mornings entitled, “A Rest That Works.” This is meant to complement the short video reflections that will continue during the series. Here are the remaining topics and dates:

- August 9 – Stillness
- August 16 – Solitude

WELCOME, PASTOR WENDY!

Today we are pleased to welcome back to St John Rev. Wendy Piano as our preacher and presider in worship. Please be sure to greet Pastor Wendy in person after worship or a hello online. Pastor Wendy, thanks so much for being with us while Pastor Paul is on vacation with his family.

FLOWERS FOR THE ALTAR

The flowers on the altar today are given in loving memory of my father George Adamson by Nancy Mathias (mother of Jay Heare).

WANNA TALK?

In these days of increased physical isolation, Pastor Paul is willing to connect with anyone who wishes, on any topic, either related to COVID-19, the George Floyd protests, or whatever. He can talk on the phone, in person while socially distancing, or via Zoom or FaceTime (yes he's an iPhone user). And he's ALWAYS willing to pray with you! Just drop him an email (pastorpaul@stjohnluth.com), text or call (260-348-6357) to set something up!

RETREAT OPPORTUNITY – SATURDAY, AUGUST 29TH

On Saturday, August 29th, we will be offering a half day congregational retreat to dive deeper into the four core rhythms of “A Rest That Works” – Sabbath Rest, Sleep, Stillness, and Solitude. Our presenter will be Brenda Jank, founder of “Run Hard. Rest Well.” Gathering and check-in starts at 8:30 a.m., while the retreat itself will run 9:00 a.m. until noon. This is open to members of St. John and members of the community. Cost is only $10—a small price to pay for your own physical and spiritual health. All participants will be given a book Brenda has written entitled, “Vantage Point.” You may sign up via the tear off portion of the Weekly if you are in public worship, or by mailing a check to the office made out to St. John.

We look forward to what God is going to do among us as we slow down together to reflect more fully on the importance of rest in our lives. May God’s Spirit richly bless our time together!

WEST CENTRAL COFFEE IS NOW OPEN!

We are open for business—and community! Indiana has moved to Stage 4.5 of re-opening. This means 75% capacity for dining areas as long as social distancing is observed, wearing of face coverings recommended, and social distancing for all Hoosiers 65 and older or who are considered high risk are still in place. The coffee house will follow and comply with these and all CDC guidelines for restaurants.

The hours of operation are currently 7 a.m. until 3 p.m., 7 days per week. Jay Heare is the interim manager, while Bruce Robinson has shifted to a Creative Arts role for the coffee house.

So what can YOU do, as a member or friend of St. John, to help West Central Coffee succeed? Here are some suggestions:

1. Pray! Ask God’s Holy Spirit to flow through the staff and facility, creating a welcoming space for ALL people. Pray for wisdom and perseverance for the West Central Coffee Advisory Board. Pray for a successful shop, so we can welcome and love our neighbors through it for years to come!
2. Join our Hospitality Team! We are assembling a team of folk who will offer hospitality and the love of Jesus to WCC guests and encourage the WCC staff—think of those friendly, welcoming and helpful Wal-Mart greeters and you’ve got a good picture of what we’re seeking to accomplish. They will also wipe down tables, pick up trash, sweep, etc. to help keep the coffee shop tidy. Email wcchospitality@stjohnluth.com to let us know of your interest OR search for the sign up sheet online at www.SignUpGenius.com and sign up for one or more two hour time slots.
3. Fill our “Grace Jar” with wooden nickels! Each “Grace Coin” costs $2 and is good for a free 12 oz. cup of coffee to be given to someone who can’t afford a cup of their own. Even a simple $20 donation will add 10 wooden nickels. Be sure to indicate “Grace Jar” on any donations you wish to be used for this purpose. And may grace abound! (. . . but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more. + Romans 5:20)
4. Come buy our coffee! Seriously, once we are open, stop by often to enjoy our coffee, supplied by Utopian Coffee, or one of our many specialty drinks, from espresso to a wide variety of other choices. Thanks!

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT TO SERVE AT THE WEST CENTRAL HOME & GARDEN TOUR AND ARTSFEST SEPT 12/13

Once again we will be seeking sign ups to serve at the West Central Home and Garden Tour and Artsfest the first weekend after Labor Day. This year’s goal is 20 sign ups. This is half of last year’s goal, due to (1) the pandemic that has limited people’s willingness and ability to get out and about, (2) a reduced number of volunteers needed due to the changes in how the Tour is operating this year (see elsewhere in the newsletter for more details). Keep watching the Weekly as details on how to volunteer will be printed here when they become available. THANK YOU (in advance) for signing up to love and serve your West Central (and wider Fort Wayne) neighbors!
